New Business

Director Krooswyk presented the final draft of the library's FY2021 Budget. Included are conservative projections of library income due to the unknown effects of the pandemic and current events on the economy, future EAV and collection rates. The library will only see a half year of referendum funding in May 2021, so this year will be focused on planning for the future. The current year's budget and the upcoming year's proposed budget were compared side by side.
