TO BE RED

MARCH MADNESS 2026

March Madness 2026

“To Be Read” Book Bracket

Your favorite books are red-hot & ready to be read!

Red Alert! March Madness is back! It's March Madness 2026: To Be RED, featuring 16 sizzling books across 8 colorful categories all with RED covers! Each week, vote for your favorite books as they battle it out for the title of March Madness Champion! Be sure to vote Mondays in March. Each time you vote, your name will be entered into a prize drawing.

Registration is not required, but by registering you will receive email reminders each week when voting becomes available.

How to Participate: Voting & Brackets

Printed brackets and voting forms can be picked up and dropped off at the Adult & Teen Services desk. You can also download a bracket, print it out & bring it to the Library or email it to kcunningham@newlenoxlibrary.org. Each week, in-person voting is available at the Adult & Teen Service Desk and digital voting links will be available on our website or through your Beanstack account!

Submit Your Bracket by Sunday, March 1

Get a bonus prize entry when you fill out a bracket with your predictions before the tournament begins; plus, ANYONE who correctly guesses their entire bracket will win a perfect bracket prize! Brackets are due no later than Sunday, March 1. Print brackets will be available starting February 2

Tournament Starts Monday, March 2

Starting Monday, March 2, vote on Mondays for your favorites at the Library, through the Beanstack or at www.newlenoxlibrary.org/marchmadness.

- March 2-8: Sweet Sixteen
- March 9-15: Elite Eight
- March 16-22: Final Four
- March 23-29: Championship

The winning title will be announced on March 30.

NEW THIS YEAR!

Use Beanstack to Track Your March Madness Progress

Register through your Beanstack account to track your activity. Starting February 2 you can log minutes of the Sweet Sixteen “To Be RED” titles to earn fun red themed reading badges. Mark your progress when you turn in your bracket and each time you vote to collect activity badges.

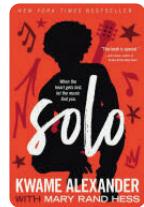

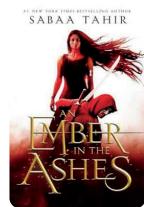

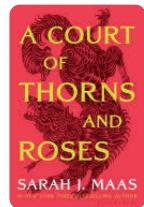

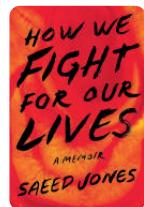

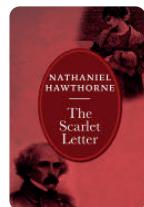

These badges do not earn you any prize drawing entries and have no bearing on the tournament results, they are just a fun way to track your progress and reward your reading.

Register for March Madness tracking by scanning the QR code!

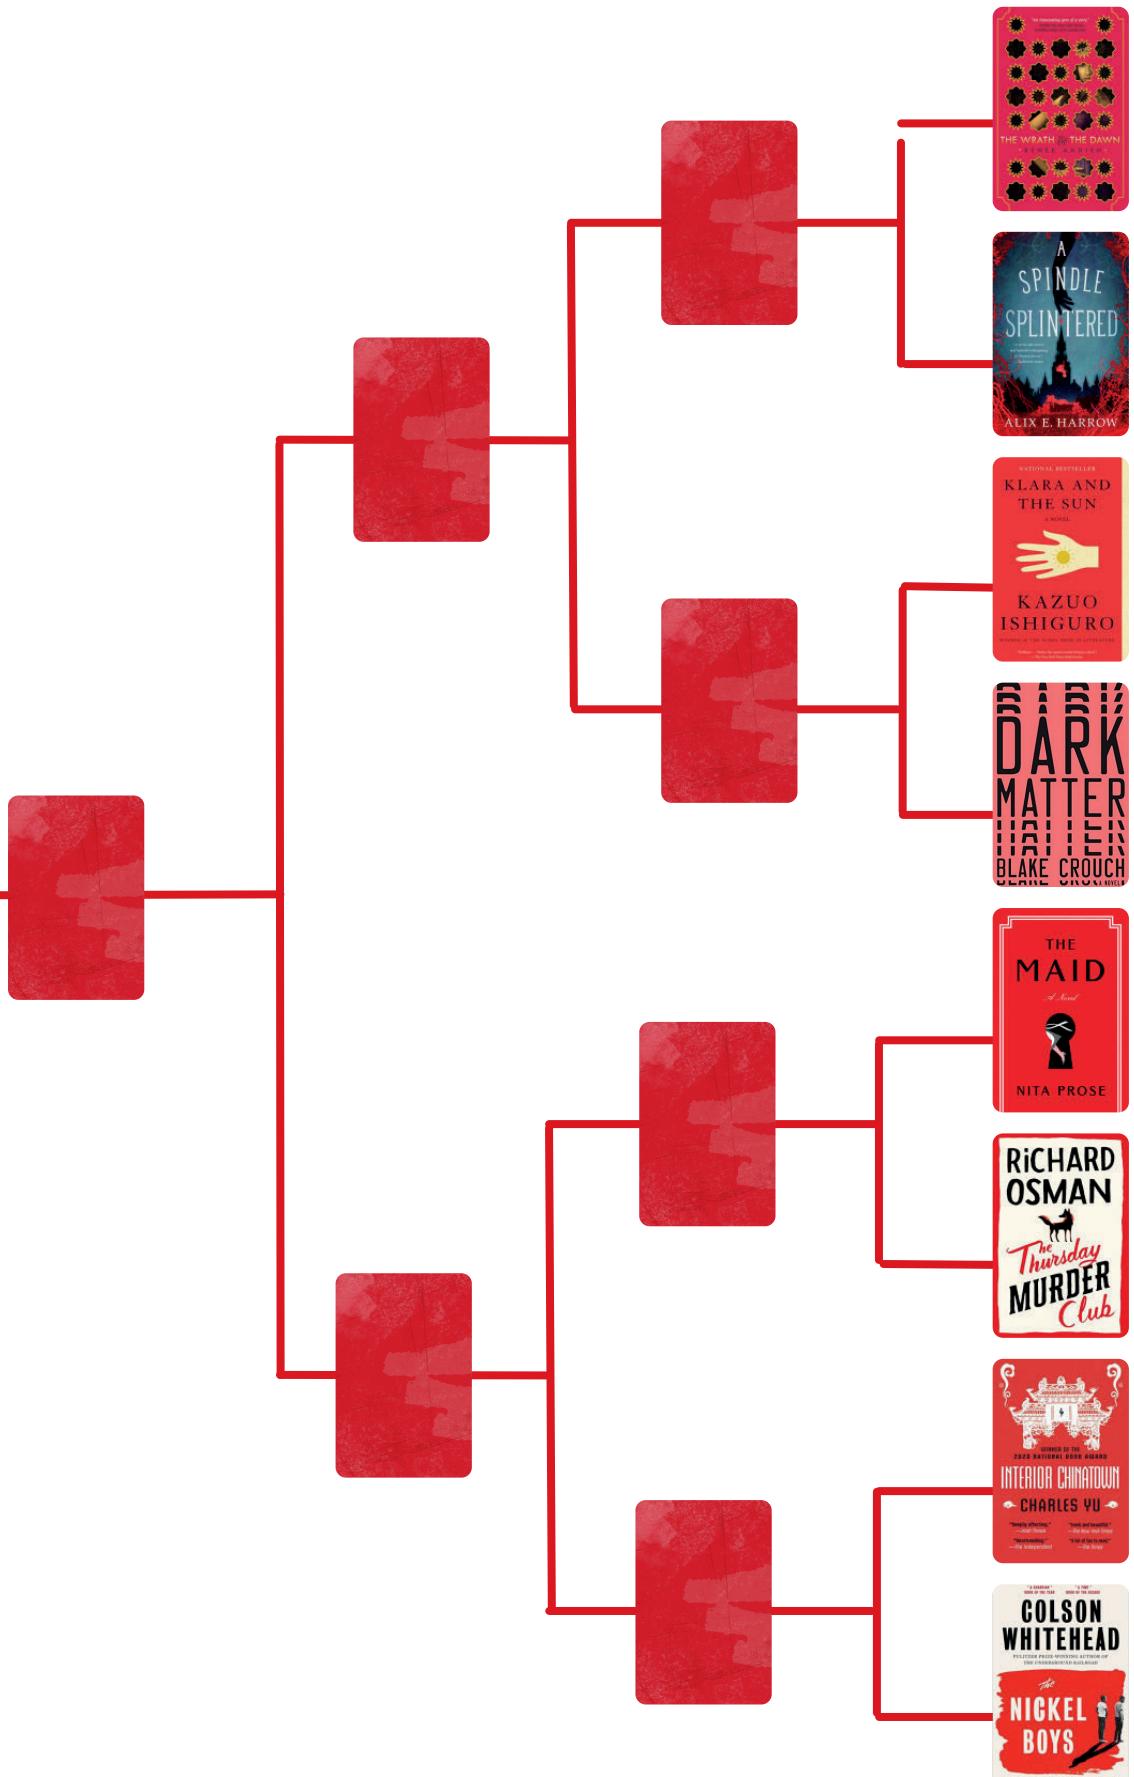

Read the Sweet 16

This year's theme is To Be RED! All the March Madness books are available in our Adult and Teen print collections with many also offered in other formats, including audiobook, large print, and eBook/eAudiobook.

Read the Sweet 16

Whether you prefer reading digitally or listening on the go, we've got you covered! Explore our digital collections on Libby, Hoopla, and Boundless. If you enjoy tracking your reading, you can log your minutes in Beanstack to earn fun badges.

MAKER DAY

Saturday, April 18
10 AM - 2 PM

Maker Day is back! Get hands-on with all that the Library has to offer as we kick off National Library Week.

Maker Day is a free, all-ages event, featuring local businesses, non-profit organizations, community members, and library staff. Drop in to explore exhibits and booths with demonstrations and activities throughout the first floor.

Learn and create with local author and illustrator Rene Galvin, Hawaii Fluid Art, Painting with Tracie, and more! Studio staff will also give presentations on xTool Creative Suite and Foley Audio!

April 19–25, 2026

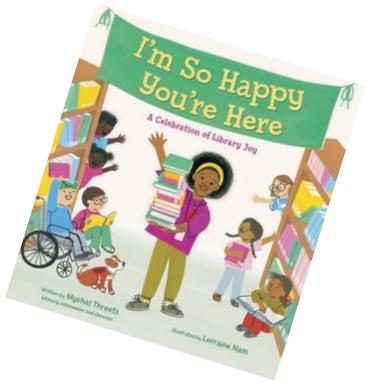

ALA
American Library Association

Library
Champions
Investing in America's Libraries

Award-winning librarian, author, and new host of the children's program "Reading Rainbow" Mychal Threets will serve as Honorary Chair of National Library Week.

"Find Your Joy," is an invitation for people of all backgrounds to explore and discover what sparks joy in them at the library. The theme amplifies a message that is ever-present in Threets' recurring viral videos about the innumerable ways people can find joy in the library, and in his debut picture book, I'm So Happy You're Here: A Celebration of Library Joy.

Stay tuned for all the ways NLPL will celebrate National Library Week!

Local Authors Collection

Did you know our lobby now features a brand-new Local Author collection? We're celebrating the incredible talent right here in Will County by showcasing books written by our own community members. From gripping fiction to inspiring non-fiction, there's something for every reader.

Stop by, explore these amazing works, and show your support for local authors—you might just discover your next favorite book while supporting your neighbors!

Introducing The Wilhelm Café

We're excited to introduce the Wilhelm Café, the library's brand-new self-service café named in honor of Elmer Wilhelm, a longtime Board of Trustees member whose dedication helped shape our library into the welcoming community hub it is today.

The Wilhelm Café is more than just a place to grab a snack or a drink. Whether you're looking for a quiet spot to enjoy a coffee while reading, an inviting place for informal meetings, or a comfortable workspace for remote work, the café has you covered. Its self-service model allows you the flexibility to come and go as you please, making it the perfect companion to your library visit.

We invite you to stop by and explore the Wilhelm Café for yourself! Open during regular library hours.
